Service Monitors

Service monitors are processes within Uptime Infrastructure Monitor that regularly check the performance and availability of services in your environment. If the monitor detects a problem, Uptime Infrastructure Monitor issues an alert.

This section gives you a breakdown of the different types of service monitors that are available in Uptime Infrastructure Monitor.

- Agent Monitors
- Microsoft Windows Monitors
- VM Monitors
- Database Monitors
- Application Monitors
- Network Service Monitors
- Advanced Monitors