

How many exclusions can the File System Capacity Monitor use?

The File System Capacity monitor is configured to allow up to 5 entries for exclusions or special cases. If you find that more exclusions are required, there are two options:

1. Ensure that you are using the * wildcard appropriately to match multiple file systems.
2. Use a combination of two or more File System Capacity service monitors to monitor specific sets of file systems.

Related Documentation: For the latest information on the File System Capacity monitor please review Release Notes - Changes to Existing Features and Agent Monitors - File System Capacity