Change the default Service Monitors (PING or UPTIME)

There is currently no way to change the default service monitors that are associated with an element when it is added to Uptime Infrastructure Monitor.

Default monitors can be manually adjusted or deleted after your element has been added to Uptime Infrastructure Monitor either individually via the Uptime Infrastructure Monitor user interface or many at a time using direct ODBC database commands.