

What are the graphic columns in an XML report output file

Any column in an XML output file labelled graphic and followed by a number is simply a placeholder for a graphic that would be included in an HTML or PDF report output. For XML reporting purposes these columns can be ignored or removed post export.