Uptime Controller

Uptime Infrastructure Monitor is available as a RESTful Web API. The API, accessed through the Uptime Controller, allows users to customize Uptime Infrastructure Monitor outside of its core feature set.

The Uptime Controller is part of the main Uptime Infrastructure Monitor installation, and requires minimal configuration to enable secure communication with Uptime Infrastructure Monitor. See the Installation and Quick Start Guide for more information.