

API Documentation

The API is provided by the up.time Controller, which is installed with the up.time Monitoring Station. The Uptime Infrastructure Monitor API provides you with an easy way to access your inventory and active status information from third-party tools. The API is designed in a general RESTful API format, allowing you to access it using any programming language that can consume URL request output.

Refer to the following sections for more information:

- API Overview
- Programming Guidance
- API Reference